LETTER TO THE MINISTER

Honorable Ifereimi Vasu
Hon. Minister for iTaukei Affairs
Level 2; iTaukei Trust Fund Complex
SUVA

Dear Sir,

It is of great honor and respect to present the Annual Report of 2023-2024 Financial Year with the activities, attribution and achievements of the Rewa Provincial Council.

The Rewa Provincial Council has once again delivered a year of success and achievements with the phases of development implementation that has been carried out through the Province which has been confined focused with integrated approach through the formulation and the launching of the Rewa Strategic Development Plan; 2024 - 2027

The Rewa Provincial Council brings to your attention that the development of the Rewa Strategic Development Plan was embraced through the 55 Integrated Development Plan as its founding structure with assistance of information gathered from respective groups, provincial office reports and the reports from respective agencies. It has the mud lobster (Mana) as its framework and it has 8 Priorities with significance to the 8 legs of the Mana

The Rewa Provincial Council through its strategic development plan have worked with respective stakeholders, Gvt, non-government, community based, faith based organizations, to promote sustainable development activities through a peaceful approach for Progress and Prosperity. Hence minimizing the negative externality impact within the province.

The Rewa Provincial Council was so blessed that the Rewa Province has been the chosen site for the GCC Pilot Project on Poverty Alleviation where the ground work of the project led the Commissioner of the iTaukei Lands and Fisheries Commission and his courageous team to provide awareness and restoring the vacant traditional leadership title from 35% to 75%.

The Rewa Provincial Council do encounter challenges within its sphere of operations; the geographical layout of the communities in the Province, servicing the Island of Beqa, transportation accessibility to villagers within Rewa & Laucala Island, staff turnover and network connectivity. However it has always been persevering with the limited resources that it has to support the Good Governance and Well Being of its provincial members.

The Rewa Provincial Council will persevere to deliver a strong performance for the new financial year and reap positive returns from its wise investment in all its development arena of operations.

Vinaka Vakalevu.

ROKO TUI'S OVERVIEW

This Annual Report give emphasis to enlighten the insights of specific service deliveries, investments, development plans implementation and achievements of the Rewa Provincial Council within the 2023 - 2024 Financial Year.

In the 1st quarter of the financial year, we had our Tikina Council Meeting that was held at the respective Tikina's together with the clarification and awareness drive by the Rewa SDP Committee members on the Rewa SDP 204 – 2027. The 2nd Quarter major activities concurred the awareness on the education assistance $10 drive from the Education Committee and the PC Staff, Urban Visitation to the urban dwellers, Launching of the Rewa SDP with the Education Assistance Collection drive. The 3rd Quarter major activities compounds the Great Council of Chiefs Meeting, Tikina Council meeting and Rewa SDP stakeholders meetings whilst the 4th quarter focus rests on PC sub- committee meetings, Rewa PC meeting on the 26th June 2025 where the Rewa think tank team enlighten the PC members on the progress implementation of the Rewa SDP 2024 -2027.

My acknowledgement to the contribution of the Office Commissioner Central Division, the Office of the Provincial Administrator Rewa and its respective aligning agencies for the development routines through the Integrated Rural Development framework, where our rural population has been supported from government funded projects that has raised their standard of living.

A Milestone achievement that contributed to this year's success was the awarding and distribution of $50, 500 education assistance to 101 tertiary students and it was also the first time that students persevering on trade courses be assisted through the program

The Rewa Provincial Office did execute its targets to the best of its abilities with team work and endurance form its officers throughout the financial year where the office major events and hectic weeks of operations were sailed through and achieved at its highest peak. TNK & MNT quarterly meetings, Sauvaki Ni Vanua to follow through the awareness and restoration of traditional titles, Village Council meetings and identification of economic thrives were critical areas that needs to be strengthened and monitored.

Although the operations do encounter challenges within its sphere of operations; the geographical layout of the communities in the Province, servicing the Island of Beqa, transportation accessibility to villagers within Rewa & Laucala Island, staff turnover and network connectivity, the strategical mindset potentials within the officers to assist those in need runs the flag at Nabalili work space.

Lastly, I would like to thank the respective 55 villages within the Province for accommodating and facilitating the respective aligning agencies when they were conducting their field operational duties and it was through the recipient heart and kind words of welcome that paid the field day.

Furthermore, Rewa Provincial Office will persevere to elevate its standard of operation with the deliverance of excellence services cometh the next financial year.

Integrated Village Development Profile

The IVDP for the 55 villages formed the baseline for the development issues, priorities and development and investments needs. The main source of food is subsistence farming of root crops and vegetables, fisheries, municipal markets and processed food from retailshops. The main sources of income are employment and remittances, supplemented by subsistence farming of dalo (taro) & yaqona (Piper methysticum), fishing, harvesting of crustaceans such as mana (mud lobster), qari (mud crab), tuba, moci (prawns) and molluscs such as kaikoso (antique ark), kai (freshwater mussel, batissa violacea), sici (commercial top shell) rochia nilotica, dio (oyster) (thus both freshwater & marine), canteen operations, small business operations and ecotourism.

Some villages in the Tikina of Rewa, Sawau and Raviravi still use the river as their source of water supply whilst villages on the island of Beqa are powered by generators and solar energy source.

The Province's close proximity to Suva, Nasinu and Nausori Municipalities, has enabled our villages to have access and be connected to the Water Authority of Fiji (WAF), main water supply and the Electricity Fiji Limited (EFL) Power grid. It is also well serviced by Public Services as telecommunications and roads, and social services such as health facilities and primary, secondary and tertiary education (See Table 2).

Landscape & Environment

The Province of Rewa consists of fifty-five (55) villages and nine (9) Tikinas covering a land area of 27,200 hectares and fourteen (14) Qoliqoli area, namely; Sawau, Kulu, Nukunitabua, Naduruvesi, Nacurumoce, Raviravi, Suva, Nakurulevu, Navakavu, Vuninokonoko, Bativudi, Toga, Noco and Burebasaga.

There are seven (7) Traditional Tabu Vakavanua Qoliqoli areas and nil gazetted Marine Protected Areas (MPA)

For Leases, 153 are Agricultural, 52 Commercial, 29 Education, 15 Government, 103 Industrial, 920 Residential, 3 Water and Mineral and 53 for Other leases (source: iTLTB, 25)

Economically, the exchange system - a form of survival strategy of rural people in the marginalized economy - maintains linkages among villages depending on who has or lacks resources with the kerekere system in the past. Due to development, people have been actively involved with some sources of income whereby majority rely on sea and agricultural produce to support family. Some of these economic driven programs include:

Canteen

Food market

Kava/Tobacco

Livestock

Fish-pond

Herbal Medicine

Fuel

Fisherman

Art-facts

Tailor

Flower arrangements

Carpentry

Mechanical engineering

Numerous NGOs and GOs have assisted the province with development initiatives to assist local communities. In the planning perspective of villages, some NGOs have assisted in the IVDP with the analysis from the village profiling conducted.

PROVINCIAL COUNCIL PERFORMANCE

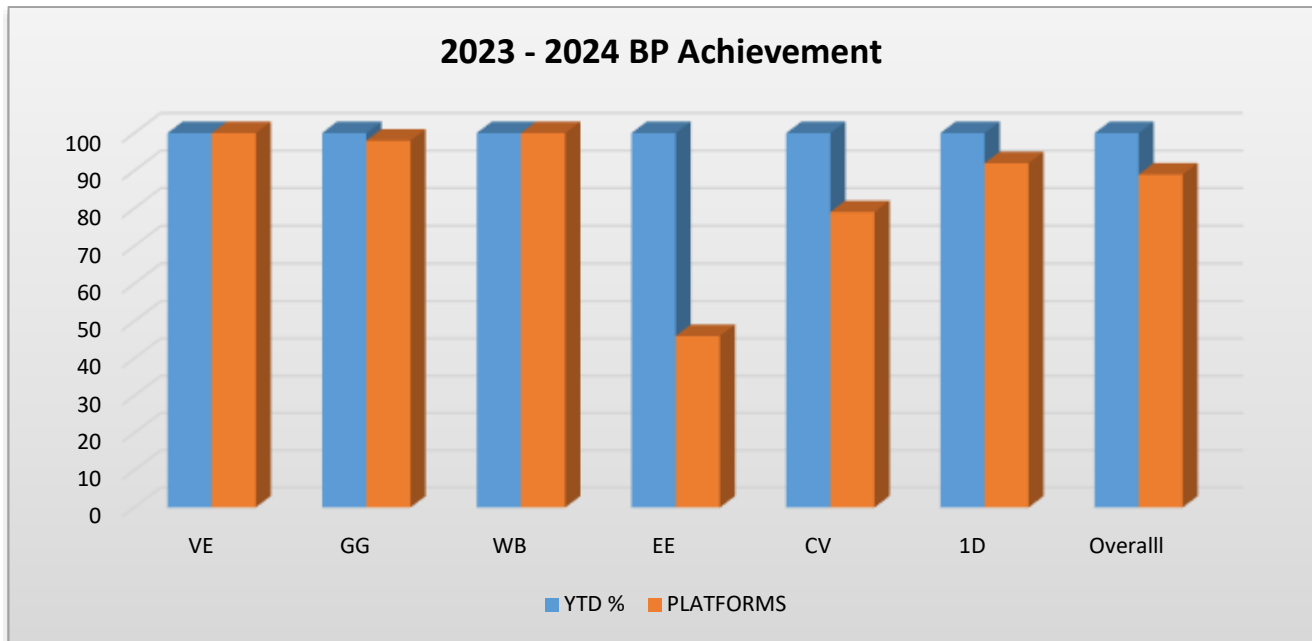

Summary of Performance

The financial year 2023.2024 was a successful year for the Council as we were able to deliver many programs in the Business Plan. Our BP was reviewed with the inclusion of some new targets, likewise blending key target areas with our strategic development plan, and this gave our hard-working staffs the opportunity to capitalize on their potentials and exhaust their capacities at all spheres of operations.

The remarkable support rendered by government departments and Non-Government Organizations has enabled us to achieve 89% in our BP 2023 - 2024.

The Council has worked with other Ministerial Departments and CSOs to implement projects and also accompany government arranged tours to assess projects that have been implemented by the government.

OPERATIONAL FLOW

Our operational flow is the heartbeat of the service delivery at the Provincial Council where activities are carried out effectively through the Integrated Rural Development Framework. All agencies and respective development stakeholders work in hand in hand to achieve a common goal to the communities that we serve.

The Provincial Council facilitating and coordinating role is very crucial in important development events, ranging from training, capacity building, special forums, ground breaking events, building of funded projects, monitoring of development progress and handing over of completed projects.

The Rewa Strategic Development Plan

The Rewa SDP 2024 – 2027 sets the basis of operations with its alignment to the TAB Platforms of operations, Fiji NDP and likewise the UN SDG’s whilst its implementation routine addresses the needs captured in the Integrated Village Development Plan.

Integrated Rural Development Framework

Integrated Approach delivered within the Province at all targeted activities within the 8 Priorities sets the tone of operation within the Province, i.e. whether the projects are funded by government, NGO’s or other special donors, the spirit of interagency collaboration and participation will always be felt and will always be considered and respected.

PRIORITY 1: TRADITIONAL GOVERNANCE OF REWAN CHARACTER

Objective 1 KPI 1 (Confirmation of traditional title Holders) GCC Pilot Project Initiative

The TLFC awareness drive throughout the Province with the need to restore the vacant traditional leadership title was an efficient service delivery with traditional leadership title confirmed increased from 35% to 78%
